Turkey Has Played Into Russian Hands—Is Made The Catspaw For The Czar—Nothing But An Apology.

[Special by Scripps-McLure.] London, July 22.—Twenty gulpen per cent was quoted at Lloyd's Thursday for insurance against the outbreak of an Anglo-Russian war within three weeks. This is the rate which prevailed at Lloyd's on the Russo-Japanese war three weeks prior to the outbreak of hostilities. Seattle, Wash., July 22.—Local marine insurance agents have received cable instructions from London to accept no risks on ships or cargo destined for Japan without authority from London. This is considered a suspension of the marine insurance business to the Oriental belligerent ports. The agents say it is the direct result of the seizure of the Malacca. But one American steamship is now on the high seas from Puget sound with a cargo for Japan. She is the Boston Steamship company's vessel Shawmut, which sailed July 19 with 15,000 tons of cargo, including 500,000 pounds of canned beef from Chicago to Kobe. The local agent of the company declared that he did not fear the seizure of the vessel, as the cargo was consigned to private individuals and not to the Japanese army.

British Troops To Be Moved. London, July 22.—Runners are persistent to the effect that the Mediterranean carillon will be strengthened by troops from this country. The Daily Mail says there is reason to believe that these reports are absolutely correct. It is also possible that a portion of the channel fleet will be sent to Gibraltar. London, July 22.—There is a tendency, even among the more sober of the evening newspapers, to take a panicky view of the latest developments in the Anglo-Russian crisis. Other papers are openly talking war, and feeling among all classes runs high.

Liaoyang, July 22.—According to news received here from Ta Teho Kiao, Gen. Kuroki has smashed the left flank of Gen. Kuropatkin's army and broken through the Russian line after a savagely contested battle, and is now marching upon Mukden. The reports on this battle are meager, but state that the Japanese swept forward with such desperate valor that the Russians could not resist their charge, but broke and fled. Stand after stand was made by the Russians, who reformed repeatedly, but the Japanese advance could not be stayed.

Field Guns Are Effective. Aided by the splendid work of their field guns they are said to have devastated the Russian ranks and finally completely cleft the Russian line between Gen. Keller's position and that of Gen. Rennenkampf, driving the two sections of Russian troops far apart.

Through this break a large part of Kuroki's army poured and is now said to be advancing upon Mukden.

Fierce Battle Is Raging. Mukden, July 22.—A fierce fight has been raging since Tuesday and it still continues. The Japanese, who are superior in strength, attacked with great daring and coolness. The Russians are contesting the ground splendidly. The Japanese flanking movements to the east are the real cause of the Russian retreat. Heavy losses have been sustained. The Japanese artillery has again shown its superiority.

The Globe says that if Russia ordered the Malacca to be sent forward from Port Said it places the two empires on the brink of war. The Globe adds: "If this clandestine departure was effected under orders from the Russian government, we are afraid there is only one construction to be put upon it, namely, a deliberate desire to force us to take action to which there can be only one termination. We may be certain that by this time orders have been issued for her seizure by the first British man-of-war she may meet."

The Pall Mall Gazette calls on the leaders of the opposition to strengthen on the hands of the government by a plain declaration. It says that all parties should stand shoulder to shoulder at a crisis that is graver than any that has confronted the nation since the Penjdeh incident—the clash on the Afghan border in 1885, which all but brought Russia and England to blows.

Frank Van Acker of Oconto, aged 11, had both hands blown off while handling a dynamite cap. A hospital ticket proved a good thing for Jacob Salin, who was employed by the Hamilton & Merriman Logging company at Marinette. He has just been discharged from the Menominee river hospital, where he had been confined since Dec. 31, with $150 hospital insurance. Joseph Hanson's meat market at Kenosha was robbed of $35. John Krauer, an ex-employee, was suspected and was captured on a train bound for Milwaukee, by Mr. Hanson himself and turned over to the police. Krauer confessed.

Walter C. Reineking, a summer school student at the university, was struck with a piece of sheet metal at Science hall. He was severely injured, but will recover. W. W. Mitchell's flour mill at Stevens Point was nearly destroyed by fire. The loss was $700; no insurance.

BIG POLICEMAN TOYS WITH CUPID

Giant of The Madison Police Force Weds Daughter of a Merchant In Capital City.

[Special to The Gazette.] Madison, Wis., July 22.—Police Officer, John Jennings, the biggest, handiest and most popular member of the Madison department eloped yesterday morning with Miss Emma McCaryll, and was married at noon in Chicago. The bride is a daughter of Robert J. McCaryll, a prominent fruit dealer of this city. She is a beautiful blonde and one of Madison's most popular young ladies. The couple will spend the honeymoon in Milwaukee, Rockford, Freeport, and St. Louis. The bride has been the pillar of her father's fruit business, her beautiful attractions and winning ways drawing a large student trade. While her father did not exactly object to the marriage of his daughter to this handsome policeman yet he felt greatly reluctant to lose her and at the same time the major part of his trade. Officer Jennings became acquainted with his fiancée while doing patrol duty on State street where she resided. It was a case of love at first sight. The father of the bride has signified his willingness to forgive the young people and will receive them with outstretched arms when they return.

FELL SIXTEEN FEET THURSDAY

William Hartwick of Hanover Fell From The Roof of a House He Is Working On.

Hanover, July 22.—Yesterday while William Hartwick was shingling a house, he fell and received a broken arm and a number of bruises. He had just finished shingling and was about to get down on a ladder he had placed to get up on the building with, but while he was at work somebody took the ladder away and he, supposing the ladder was there, got over the edge to get down and getting overbalanced fell to the ground, a distance of 16 feet, on a pile of stone. Mr. Hartwick was brought home and Dr. S. W. Lacey of Footville was summoned and found his arm was broken just below the elbow, besides other bruises.

MEAT STRIKE IS ON AGAIN

Packers Are Alleged To Have Violated The Peace Agreement Made At The Conference

FIGHT TO THE FINISH HAS BEGUN

All Centers Of The Meat Trade Are Affected—Giant Strike Will Begin At Once—No Conferences Now.

[Special by Scripps-McLure.] Chicago, Ill., July 23.—The big stock yards strike is on again. When the butchers reported for work this morning in accordance with the peace agreement the packers agents offered work for only a few of their number. Prominent union men were discriminated against. Less than a hundred of the twelve hundred butchers were offered work. The men left the plants in a body.

Strike Is On. President Donnelly then officially declared the strike on again and notified the unions in all packing trade to also go out. The teamsters and machinists are also requested to start a sympathetic strike.

Monster Strike. Indications point to a "monster strike of the entire packing trade which is to be to a finish this time. President Donnelly charged the packers with the "ranked kind of discrimination," and "absolute violation of the peace is feared." Most of the non-union men quit last night fearing to work with the returned strikers. This leaves the packers in a worse plight than ever.

Executive Session. The packers went into executive session at ten o'clock this morning to consider the new development in the strike situation. Eleven packers gave out the following: "Much to our surprise the men after reporting for work this morning were ordered out again. The officers of the organization understood the business had been disrupted during the strike and some days would be required to get started up anything like the ordinary capacity. It is the intention of the packers to carry out the agreement in every particular and if any house has given cause of grievance, the same can be readily adjusted." Three hundred policemen and one hundred private watchmen resumed duty in the stockyards district.

The Real Situation. According to the police estimates, 1,500 nonunion men left the yards. Before daylight Thursday 175 had left the Armour plant and 225 left the Swift plant. All day the exodus was kept up, the men leaving in crowds of from fifty to seventy-five, usually under a police escort. Beyond hooting and jeering, the strikers who watched the gateways did not interfere. Some of them made remarks that they were sorry the strike breakers did not wait for another day until the union men got back to their places.

Complain of Short Pay. At the Nelson Morris plant some of the nonunionists created a slight disturbance before leaving, as they declared they were paid less wages than they were promised. The police were on hand, however, and the men had to go to their places.

At Kansas City, Mo., July 22.—Orders were posted this morning warning the union butchers not to go to work. The men who have taken their old jobs will hold them until further orders.

Walked Out. St. Paul, Minn., July 22.—Union butchers walked out of Swift's packing house, at South St. Paul, upon the receipt of the order from Donnelly this morning. There is no disorder.

At Omaha. Omaha, Neb., July 22.—In obedience to the order of Pres. Donnelly two thousand men will be out at noon today. The mechanical craftsmen will probably go out this time.

St. East St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., July 22.—At East St. Louis the butchers went out again this morning. The plants are still working small forces.

WIFE MURDERER HOLDS POLICE FORCE AT BAY

Officials Are Forced to Use Chloroform Before They Can Secure Their Prisoner.

Peoria, Ill., July 22.—Frank Pierce shot and killed his wife at their home in Canton, Fulton county, and then held the entire Canton police force at bay. The sheriff's force was summoned from Lewistown, but in the meantime Undertaker Messler, who had been summoned by Pierce, visited the house and while the two were discussing arrangements for the burial of Pierce's wife, the officers rushed in and after a desperate struggle overpowered the slayer. They were forced to chloroform him before he could be removed from the house.

After shooting his wife three times Pierce barricaded himself in the upper portion of his home and through the closed shutters announced he would kill the first officer to set foot on his premises. His mother passed in and out of the house at will, but he would not permit her near the death chamber. He requested his brother-in-law, Charles McCaslin, to come to the house to talk regarding the disposition of his effects, and Fred Messler, an undertaker, to care for his wife's remains. Both at first declined, but Messler finally assented, which resulted in Pierce's capture.

Happiness. Quit trying to be happy. Happiness is a chimera, a vain and idle conceit, a fantastic delusion. The best plan is to set for yourself a certain standard of misery and learn to grin and bear it. Then, whatever comes above that standard will be happiness.

DOCTOR BECOMES MAD FROM COCAINE TESTS

Physician Experiments on Himself With the Deadly Drug and Makes Notes of Its Effect.

Flemington, N. J., July 22.—The report by Dr. Frank W. Lanison, coroner of Hunterdon county, on the tragic death of Dr. George V. Wenner of Milford shows that the latter, a well-known physician, was driven mad while experimenting on himself with cocaine.

From Dr. Wenner's diary it was learned that he had been in the habit of taking cocaine for experimental purposes, sitting before a mirror to observe the physiological effect of the poison. An entry in his diary reads: "Half a grain taken hypodermically, afternoon condition same." Another reads: "July 18, 1894, 5 p. m. Purchased one-eighth ounce of cocaine hydrochlorate; one grain boiled in one-half for three minutes produced only diaphoresis and local effect. Slept. Hallucinations at end of twenty minutes, removed after an hour from injection. Took bath at 5. Temperature of air about 80. No forced breathing, no convulsive movements of muscles."

Another note in his diary in June shows that experiments with antitoxins were successful.

EXACT VOTE OF THE CONVENTION

FIGURES GIVEN IN ANSWER TO A QUERY HANDED IN

567 REPUBLICAN DELEGATES

Voted in The Convention Which Nominated Mr. Cook For Governor at Madison.

To the Editor: Will you kindly publish in the Gazette what were the total votes taken at the La Follette convention and the convention which nominated Mr. Cook at Madison in May?

A SUBSCRIBER.

Orfordville.

The first vote taken in the La Follette convention assembled in the Armory at Madison May 18 was on the question of accepting the minority or majority report of the state central committee. There were 1,065 delegates who had a right under the call of the state central committee to sit in the convention. Of this number five, from the second ward of Milwaukee, were disfranchised and the total voting in the Armory convention was ten hundred and sixty. This number included the delegates whose seats were in doubt and who were allowed under the ruling of the chairman to vote on every case except their own. This vote stood 574 5-6 ayes and 45 1-6 noes. The vote taken at the republican convention at the opera house showed that 567 delegates were present. There were no La Follette delegates at this convention, the entire number being anti third terms. This vote showed the total vote of the regularly elected delegates to the republican state convention on the call issued by the state central committee. The national committee on credentials at the Chicago convention reviewed all the evidence on this matter and decided that the 567 men who voted in the Cook convention were the delegates duly elected and duly qualified to act at the republican state convention. Below is printed a table showing the exact situation as it stood at the time of the assembling of the state convention. By manipulation of the state central committee the figures were made to favor the "governor."

Now, by adding to the La Follette vote twenty-four votes from Dane, twelve from Dunn, and three from Sawyer, which were not contested, but the delegates from which districts held imperfect credentials, the total La Follette vote is raised to 481 5-6, as against 451 1-6. It must be understood that this is giving La Follette credit for thirty-nine delegates who held imperfect credentials. Again, add to the La Follette column twelve delegates from the second district of Grant county whose credentials were not signed by the chairman or secretary of the county committee, thirteen delegates from Portage and three from Washburn county whose credentials were defective in the same particular, and the La Follette total is raised to 512 5-6. Add to the republican column the fourteen anti-La Follette delegates from Pierce county whose seats were not contested but whose credentials were imperfect, the nine delegates from Eau Claire county, against whom no contesting delegates appeared but whose credentials were signed only by the chairman of the county committee, and the eleven delegates from Oconto county whose credentials were perfect, and the total republican vote is raised to 530 1-6.

With St. Croix county and one district in Eau Claire county left out of the count, the vote would stand 530 1-6 republican and 512 5-6 La Follette. By giving La Follette St. Croix county, which was contested but in which the La Follette men had credentials, his vote would be raised to 525 5-6, leaving one district in Eau Claire county with nine votes to be settled by the convention. In this district the republican delegates had credentials signed by the secretary of the same committee. It should be remembered that by placing St. Croix county in the La Follette column it is not conceded that they belonged there. The concession is made that they had legal credentials, but a fair hearing of the contest from that county would have seated the republican delegates. This fact is true also of other contested delegations that are given above to La Follette.

News for the Railroad Men.

It is said that Russell Harding, vice president and general manager of the Missouri Pacific road, probably will be chosen as the active head of the consolidated Pere Marquette, Erie and Zimmermann of Cincinnati will continue as president and G. M. Cummings, vice president, will be made chairman of the board.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has issued a financial statement for the fiscal year ending June 30, which shows that the year's work was quite profitable, although not equal to the preceding year, which was the best the company ever had.

The directors of the Southern Pacific passed a resolution yesterday for the issue of $40,000,000 of preferred stock for the $100,000,000 authorized by the stockholders Wednesday.

Frank Van Vleet has been assigned the position of fireman on runs number 585 and 586 on the Madison division between Baraboo and Harvard, in place of A. Briscoe.

H. W. North has been appointed an extra engineer on the Madison division of the North-Western.

H. H. Tinkham has been appointed engineer on runs 70 and 71, between Baraboo and Milwaukee, on the Madison division.

J. W. Williams has been appointed engineer on the Madison division on runs 502 and 579, between Elroy and Janesville.

H. O. Koenecke has been assigned to the position of fireman on runs 512 and 509, between Elroy and Chicago, with Engineer Fred Purcell on the Madison division.

James McShayne, who has been firing on a passenger running to Chicago on the Milwaukee road, has become engineer on a freight on the Prairie du Chien division. The new engineer was required as business is beginning to pick up. Adolph Merg has Mr. McShayne's old run having started Tuesday.

John Hayes, night operator at the West Madison depot of the Milwaukee road formerly at the Janesville office, has gone to Chamberlain, S. D., to try his luck at the opening of the Itasca reservation. John Mullin of Prairie du Chien is taking his place at the Madison depot.

Two more arrests were made today in the padded pay roll case of the Milwaukee road. George H. Riley, clerk in the paymaster's department, and Henry H. Johnson, timekeeper, are charged with presenting fraudulent time checks and receiving money thereon. This makes four arrests to date and more may be made.

FIREFLIES DOING A MIGHTY STUNT

Lowlands Sparkle Gaily With These Mysterious Little Bugs Each Night.

Campers up the river have remarked the great numbers of fire flies which are to be found this year along the low swampy places of the Rock river. Low marshy lands in the city have also been frequented by this strange little insect. These animals exhibit their tiny pyrotechnic to attract the admiring attention of the other sex and altogether form a most interesting spectacle these warm evenings. After a warm rain they are particularly prevalent. In Japan travelers tell us these insects used to be sold in tiny wicker cages for the amusement of children. In France they are the famed spirits of the departed among the superstitious people of the provinces, but here we simply enjoy them. Down by the bank where the river washed over the bank this last spring they are particularly numerous on damp evenings.

Just some mystery attaches animal phosphorescence. The pale, bluish white light of the glowworm has been found by naturalists to be dependent upon the motion of the insect's body or legs. From this it would seem that the phosphorescence depends upon some nervous action, regulated at pleasure by the insect. If it has the power of obscuring it entirely, if the glowworm be crushed and the face or hands rubbed with it luminous streaks like those produced by phosphorus will appear. They shine more brightly in oxygen gas and in nitrous acid.

The power of emitting luminous rays belong to several varieties of fly, and three species of beetle of the genus elater. One of the most brilliant of these is the great lantern fly of South America, which gives enough light to enable a person to read by the rays from a single insect. Numerous classes of these flies are found in Baraboo where they illuminate the darkness in a most remarkable manner.

In some of the bogs of Ireland lives a worm which gives out a bright green light—a fitting color for the emerald isle. There are many other kinds of insects which become luminous in the dark.

Yet there are many curious instances of phosphorescence in dead animal and vegetable matter, the lobster among crustaceans, the white being striking examples. Their emissions of light seem to depend, however, not upon putrefaction, for as this progresses their luminosity diminishes, but upon certain peculiar atmospheric conditions. The phosphorescence of decaying matter has been regarded as somewhat different from the slow combustion of phosphorus, but upon examination all the chemical conditions are found to be the same.

The strange phosphorescent quality of some plants and flowers is not exactly the same as that possessed by animal matter, but it is as little understood.

derstood. It seems to be an absorption of light and a subsequent liberation of it. If a nasturtium is plucked during sunshine and carried into a dark room the eye, after it has reposed for a few moments, will discover the flower by the light emitted from its leaves. Janesville children might try this little experiment and obtain much pleasure from it.

The phosphorescence of the sea is due to a living animal, which gives out its light under nervous excitement, as when it is stirred by the motion of a passing vessel.

MODELS OF AMERICAN WAR SHIPS

Every Type of Man of War Represented in Miniature.

Of all the men employed by any one establishment in any one line of business, there are none probably whose patriotism exceeds that of the regiment of men employed by Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth. This show, during its long career of nearly thirty years, since Mr. J. A. Bailey effected the consolidation of his show with the show of the great and only P. T. Barnum, has made a number of trips abroad to foreign lands and each time has returned home with renewed love for American freedom and American institutions generally. Their last trip abroad, which was completed only last October, was for a period of five years and it took them into nearly all the countries in Europe. When the huge steamship "Minneapolis," which brought the show back, arrived at its dock at Pier No. 40, North River, New York City, it presented a most amazing spectacle of men and women dancing, throwing their hats in the air and the eyes of many of them streaming tears in very joy at reaching home again. With these people love of country is more than mere patriotism; it is their religion. One need only show the American flag to cause them to raise their hats in grateful salutation to "Old Glory." Perhaps the most enthusiastic patriot of them all is Mr. J. A. Bailey and he has given a most practical turn in the way of manifestation of his patriotism.

The show had been abroad some two months when the "Maine" was blown up in the harbor at Havana. The rapidly succeeding months in which the history of the Spanish-American war was made followed and he saw the rapid transition of the regard for his vast establishment from a matter of idle curiosity to profound respect. It was the battles in Manila bay and in front of Santiago by the navies of the United States and Spain that brought about this vast metamorphosis in the consideration of America and it caused in him a determination to do his share toward inciting among his fellow-countrymen an appreciation of the necessity and a proper regard to the value of a powerful American navy. He has done this by causing to be constructed eleven models of as many American naval vessels representing the various types, from the submarine boat to the largest man-of-war. He enlisted the aid of the government itself in this project and was supplied, for the purpose of securing an absolute reproduction of these vessels, the original government plans upon which the vessels were built. Subsequently, he secured the services of Mr. Charles E. Dressler, the expert electrician and mechanic of the College of the City of New York who had the reputation of being the finest constructor of models in America, to reproduce these models of American navy vessels for him, the result of which is an exhibit the like of which has never before been seen in this or any other country. The vessels are built upon the generous scale of one-quarter inch to one foot and every line and every detail of these vessels, their equipment and their armament is reduced to this scale with absolute fidelity and exactness, so that measured by the most delicate instruments will not vary the thousandth part of an inch from absolute scale from stem to stern and from keel to topmast. This exhibit in itself is well worth anyone's time and trifling expense necessary to see it. It is a single item and a single feature in the enormous exhibition of Barnum & Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth, which will be here on August 4.

PILL-MEN ARE NOW PREPARING A "DEFT"

To The Doctors And Dentists to Meet Them on The Baseball Diamond.

There are dull days in the medicine line owing to the abnormal healthfulness that prevails and the druggists in their leisure hours are carefully preparing a "deft" to their brethren, the prescription makers and the dentists to meet them on the baseball diamond in a series of three games which will determine the relative ranking of the professions in the eyes of the public at large. John Baumann is the sponsor of the idea, and his suggestions have been received with great enthusiasm.

JANESVILLE HAS MUCH INTEREST

RUSSIAN JAPANESE WAR COMES DIRECTLY HOME TO US.

CARLISLE HIBBARD THERE

Husband of Mrs. Susie Lowell Hibbard Has New Work.—Mrs. Hibbard Has Arrived Home.

Janesville people are particularly interested in Japan and its war with Russia owing to the fact that Mrs. Carlisle V. Hibbard, formerly Miss Susie Lowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lowell, of this city, has been in Tokio for two years past with her husband, and that her husband has just gone to the front with the Y. M. C. A. work and she has returned to Janesville. Mrs. Hibbard arrived in Janesville last evening after an eventful trip across the Pacific with her young daughter. An exchange gives the following account of the work her husband is about to engage in and it will doubtless be read with interest by Janesville people. During the past two years the Gazette has published from time to time most interesting letters from both Mrs. Hibbard and her husband, describing Japanese life and customs. The following article explains Mr. Hibbard's present work and Mrs. Hibbard's presence at home while her husband is at the front: Highest Officials.

Early in June the national committee of the Young Men's Christian association of Japan presented to the leading government officials a statement of proposed work in behalf of Japanese soldiers and sailors. The prime minister, General Count Katsuma, examined carefully the proposed plan, giving it his heartiest endorsement, and recommending the same to the favorable attention of the minister of war and the navy. The proposal of the national committee was submitted to them, and following this a special committee interviewed the minister of war, general Tanaka, the minister, stated that he had been most favorably impressed with the practical nature of the work proposed and appreciated the kindly feelings that prompted it. He stated that he was prepared to endorse the plan and offer every facility possible for beginning the work. He stated, however, that under the present conditions the Japanese troops being engaged in a most arduous and exacting campaign, moving with secrecy and swiftness, and their being on the Manchurian side practically no base or permanent headquarters, it would be impossible for the present to satisfactorily conduct the work near the field of operation.

The starting. The minister proposed that the work should be inaugurated at Hiroshima, the Japanese point of concentration and disembarkation, where large numbers of troops are coming and going, and where a considerable number are permanently located. Here also are hospitals, with accommodations for 8,000 men, in which at present there are 2,000, and the numbers are daily increasing. The minister volunteered to provide the location for erection of the association tent, to furnish transportation for necessary supplies and offered all possible facilities. The minister further stated that at such time as there may be field hospitals toward the front, or permanent camps, permission will undoubtedly be gladly given for the extension of the work to such points. This work of the Young Men's Christian association will be in charge of the national committee of Japan, and among the most active of those interested are such men as the Hon. S. Ebata, M. P., one of the five commissioners of the constitutional party, which is at present in power in the district, and Judge C. Watanabe, judge president of the Kanagawa district court, and one of the men named in order for promotion to the supreme bench.

Many Societies. Because of the almost innumerable relief societies looking towards the amelioration of conditions of those destitute through the war whose support must be entirely provided by private charity, the country is being largely drained of the money accessible for such purposes. However, this committee expects to conduct a canvass which will secure from business men and others interested non-salutary funds. However, it will be impossible to do the extensive work needed with funds available in Japan. One of the influences leading the national committee to undertake this work was the hearty proposal of the international committee of the association in North America to co-operate in securing the funds among the associations and friends who were interested. The interest of friends in America already expressed in this work was one of the items which impressed the government ministers in connection with it. A check for the first $500, collected and forwarded by the American International committee, has been received in Japan. The committee is expecting to send additional amounts from time to time as the growing work will demand.

Sunday Work.

The work will be similar to that conducted by the association among the United States troops. Large tents will be supplied with tables and chairs where envelopes, writing paper, pens and ink will be furnished free to the men. On the reading tables will be daily papers and magazines, and a large circulating library is contemplated. The Japanese language text will be secured to all visitors. The first tent is to be provided with phonograph organ, and if possible, a stereopticon. There are to be addresses on patriotic popular and moral subjects, together with religious meetings, bible study, personal work and tract and scripture distribution. C. V. Hibbard, one of the secretaries of the international committee in Japan, together with two Japanese colleagues, are assigned to the charge of tent No. 1.

TO MEASURE ROUTES WITH THEIR BIKES

Postoffice Department Will Soon Send Agents to Ascertain Distances of Rural Mail Lines.

Distance covered is the sole determining factor in the salaries of the rural mail carriers, the number of persons served having no bearing on the matter. The sum of $750 is fixed as the maximum pay for the largest route and $132 as the minimum. In order to determine the exact length of the routes it is now announced that rural free delivery agents with special bicycles equipped with cyclometers are soon to make a tour of the regions where new delivery routes have been established and take the measurements of the latter.

OVER A THOUSAND AT YOST'S PARK

Knights of Columbus From Janesville And Beloit Enjoyed Big Picnic.

Over a thousand members of the Knights of Columbus and their families from Janesville and Beloit gathered at Yost's park yesterday for the annual picnic. Janesville Knights formed a baseball team to meet a similar organization of the Line city on the diamond and succeeded in defeating the Beloit brethren by the score of 11 to 1. A tug of war, bag races, and numerous other games and contests proved highly entertaining for both participants and spectators. A dance in the hall situated on the grounds closed the festivities and the picnickers departed reluctantly at a late hour, highly delighted with the day's entertainment.

NIGHT.

The sky lets down its shade of dusk Upon the sun-baked ground The moon comes sailing from her home And draws the stars around.

And soon we'll drop life's ceaseless toll As gently and as still: Our God will guide our groping souls As the valley guides the rill.

DAWN.

The sun peeps o'er the misty hills And scares the moon away. He loosens all the merry birds' trills And warms the new-born day.

The flowers lift their freshened heads And shake the dew drops out. The children clamber from their beds And laugh and play and shout.

TO A POPPY.

Dear poppy, if the tale is true, Thou art the flower of sleep, The bloom that casts a spell on land And on the briny deep.

If this is so, dear flower, I beg— Send me that welcome rest, Send me that sleep, the dreamless sleep, To me that kind is best.

TO A BUTTERFLY.

At first thou wert an ugly worm Growing on the ground. But soon thou hidst thyself from harm In a caecoon round.

Till one day your bud did burst, Then thou wert set free, But oh! what wonders rest had wrought in What I last did see.

Please tell the world about your life, How an ugly worm, You worked and gained your wings so gay, After a short term.

Oh, that the world might use the lesson Shown to them so plain. And oh! I know they would, if they saw what thou wouldst gain.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, July 22, 1864.—Welcome Home.—The 5th Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers, under command of Col. Allen left Chicago this morning at 10 o'clock and arrived at the depot in this city at 2 o'clock, this afternoon. They left immediately for Madison where they will be mustered out. Their terms of service having expired. They number 160 brave men as over should shoulder a musket. This regiment has done valiant service in the army for the union and will receive a cordial welcome from the loyal people of the state.

The New Call.—Those papers and those persons who have supposed that one man for three years would answer the same as three men for one year under the new call are slightly mistaken. Captain Putnam received a telegram this morning from headquarters stating that this view of the matter was incorrect.

and that the quotas must be filled man for man, or that a man for ten years was no better as far as the present call is concerned, than a man for one year.

Letter from the Third Cavalry.—A letter to a gentleman in this city from a member of the Third Cavalry dated on board the steamer Hannibal, at the mouth of White River, states that a strong force of infantry and cavalry has gone to the relief of Little Rock. The letter also states that all the boys of the Third are all well and there is very little sickness in the expedition. A man in Company B named Brock from this city died at Boston barracks, St. Louis, after his return from a recent furlough.

From the 40th Regiment.—A boy in the 40th regiment, 100 day men, writing to his father says that there are 150 sick in the regiment and three have died, but none of them are from the company raised in this city.

HOME RULE FOR TRANSVAAL

Representative Institutions to Take Place of Present System.

London, July 22.—During the discussion of South African affairs in the house of commons Colonial Secretary Lytton announced that the government intended next year to give the Transvaal representative institutions, by substituting elected for nominated members of the legislative council.

Joseph Chamberlain, defending the introduction of Chinese labor into the Transvaal, which policy was inaugurated while he was colonial secretary, contended that white laborers would not work side by side with black laborers on equal terms, and he thought the white men were right. He added: "As the dominant race, if we admitted equality with inferior races, we would lose the power which gave us our dominance."

SMALLPOX PREVAILS AT ELGIN

Clothes of Patients at Genoa Are Sent to Laundries in Former City.

Elgin, Ill., July 22.—Garments sent to laundries in Elgin from Genoa, where a few weeks ago there were half a dozen cases of smallpox, are believed by physicians to be responsible for two cases which now exist in this city. Both patients are girls who work in a laundry. It is believed that the city has been exposed.

Two weeks ago Miss Louise Hietala, forewoman in a laundry was stricken with the disease. All the employees were ordered to be vaccinated. Few complied, and the city physician vaccinated all in the place. It then developed that one of the girls was taken ill with smallpox.

The physicians here have held a meeting and each will report to a central office any new case. This precaution, together with stringent quarantine, is expected to result in isolating all victims.

City Physician Sturm condemns the authorities at Genoa for allowing soiled clothes from smallpox patients to be sent to Elgin.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY

From the report of the Committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by that convention, June 25th, 1904.

Your committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected said John G. Spooner, J. V. Guarnier, J. W. Babcock and Emil Gensch as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

BROTHERLY LOVE.

(From Bryan's prepared statement at Lincoln, Neb., July 12, 1904.)

"I have nothing to take back. I have nothing to withdraw of the things that I have said against the methods pursued to advance his (Parker's) candidacy. It was a plain and deliberate attempt to deceive the party. The New York platform was vague and meaningless, and purposefully so, because the advocates of Judge Parker were trying to secure votes from among the people who would have opposed his views had they known them. If he had sent to the Albany convention the telegram that he sent to the St. Louis convention he would have had very few instructed delegates from the south, and no possible chance for the nomination. But he and his managers adroitly and purposefully concealed his position until the delegates had been enrolled and the nomination assured. Then his friends attempted to secure a gold plank, which was overwhelmingly defeated in the committee. After the party had rejoiced over the harmony secured by the omission of the question, and after he had secured the nomination, he injected his views upon the subject at a time when he could not be taken from the ticket without great demoralization. The nomination was secured, therefore, by crooked and indefensible methods."

(From Bryan's speech at the St. Louis convention, after receipt of Parker's dispatch.)

"I think it is a manly thing for a man to express his opinion before the convention adjourns. It would have been manly to have expressed it before the convention met. It is a manly thing to express his opinion before the delegates act finally upon his position, but it would have been a manly thing had he expressed his opinion before the voters throughout this country went to their caucuses and their primaries and sent instructed delegates here."

NOT A CLOSED SHOP.

Twenty-eight bricklayers engaged in construction work at the Washington army barracks are on strike because a nonunion colored bricklayer was given work, and thus the president is confronted by the same old problem that he solved so courageously at the time when the bricklayers union threatened to strike and thus tie up the whole government printing office unless a certain nonunion employee were discharged. The issue was clearly drawn in that instance and it has been supposed that a settlement was effected once for all of the principle that this republic is not a closed shop—that no walking boss is greater than the government!

But it seems that the lesson must be taught again. However, this strike will not be of long duration. Jobs, whether at bookbinding or brick laying, under your Uncle Sam—too nearly approximate the ideal of perfect sinecures not to be clung to eagerly, zealously, desperately. The recalcitrants will return to work with little delay—and the administration can take no backward step. Equal chances for all under the flag is a motto that must be defended to the last ditch. The president saw the true light in one case and stood manfully for the right. It must be easier now to follow the safe precedent then so well established.

When the republican convention met in Chicago the republican candidate for the presidential nomination presented a record of virtue, courage, meeting of responsibilities. When the democratic convention met the party's candidate for president was out among his fat steers, waiting for the convention to tell him what he might think.

Dun and Bradstreet report that the business interests of the country are recovering from the recent temporary depression and that the outlook is most promising for an exceptionally prosperous year. That will be good news to everybody but the democrats.

The New York state banks have added $45,000,000 to their deposits in the last year. The people's savings are always represented by red ink figures under a democratic administration.

The only picture displayed at the St. Louis convention was that of Thomas Jefferson. This leads to the suspicion that the only good democrats, like good Indians, are the dead ones.

The republican party fights things and conditions that threaten to tattoo the nation with indelible marks of calamity. The democratic party welcomes them.

The industrial organizations distributed $134,000,000 in dividends in New York on July 1. Not much encouragement in that for calamity shouters.

Like a man lost in the snow, the democratic party spends most of its time traveling over its own abandoned trails, and praying for a way out.

The republican vocabulary is composed largely of words of encouragement; the democratic is limited to words of woe and warning.

No organization in the history of the world has been so successful as the democratic party in telling us the things that were not so.

Summed up, the democratic platform reads "We know that we were wrong before and are not cocksure that we are right this time."

Every body who wants the wheels of progress blocked is convinced that President Roosevelt is dangerous.

No one ever stops to enquire to what party "Cohn" Harvey, "Calamity" Weller, and ex-Senator Pettigrew belong.

PRESS COMMENT

Racine Journal: The bolt of A. W. Maxwell, the manager of the Hearst campaign in Iowa, from Parker, will attract attention. He also resigns from the democratic state committee.

Waukesha Freeman: The straw votes will have more interest in Wisconsin this year than usual, but they evidently are not ready to pick yet. Not a ripe one has been reported.

Superior Telegram: While Dowle has his hand in the restoration business it looks as if he might get a good paying job from the democratic party.

Seranton Tribune: The announcement that a Louisiana farmer has a pumpkin growing which is already large enough to make 248 pies, is welcome at this period, when the democracy seeks cause for discontent in the south.

Hurley Miner: The La Follette leaders have now commenced to attack in advance the sincerity and honesty of the supreme court. This is outrageous and should be condemned to every fair-minded man in the state.

Madison Democrat: At the same time, if those thrifty and shifty Milwaukee politicians who are suing Hearst for services rendered and money spent in "incidentals" fail to recover they will really obtain their just dues.

Racine News: The strong reaction towards corporal punishment in schools aroused enthusiasm at the National Education association at St. Louis. An advocacy of it brought 1,000 teachers to their feet.

El Paso Herald: The English are spending much money at Gibraltar. Just as if Mr. Roosevelt's canal wasn't likely to leave it on a slide track. But as a matter of fact, there is probably plenty of business for both Panama and Suez; the former will develop new trade more than it will interfere with older lines of communication.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Dr. Parkhurst thinks the republican party should be whipped this fall for its own advantage. And, oddly enough, that's just about what many people have often thought of Dr. Parkhurst.

Merrill Advocate: With $300,000,000 one would naturally think a man could defy anyone, but Senator Clark, of Montana, for three long years was scared to death to tell his women-folk that he was married. And yet we go on calling women the weaker sex.

Grant County Herald: The actual conjunctions of the stars and planets upon which a lot of life-altering long range weather forecasts are made, it should be remembered, took place long before the knowledge of such conjunctive weather breeding conditions reached our earth. It would seem as though this fact ought to show the fallacy of such weather prophecies.

Ashland Press: The time will come some time, when bodies of workmen will not be able to strike, tying up business and inflicting hardships upon innocent third parties. Simultaneously, employers will not be allowed to make conditions so that there will be incentives to strike. It will come to pass that both employers and employees will be placed in their true relations, to the great third party, comprising everybody outside of employer and employee, and conditions for producing strikes, and strikes themselves will be impossible.

La Crosse Chronicle: Socialism in Milwaukee is a menace. Social democrats carried as many wards at the last municipal election as the republicans, and now have in the common council nine aldermen. The total social democratic vote cast last spring exceeded 15,000. Two years ago it was only 8,000. Without an organized effort to stop it, by the next election the party will have grown until it will sweep the city.

Superior Telegram: At Janesville last winter the city was electrified by the ordinance introduced by an ambitious alderman, which if passed, would have prohibited loving couples from "spooning" on the school house and church steps. The ordinance was defeated by the efforts of Ald. Connell, the only bachelor member of the council. At the last meeting of the council another bombshell was sprung by Ald. Matheson, law partner of Senator Whitehead, which, if passed, will cause electric lights to be strung in the vicinity of all the secluded places in the city parks to prevent lovers from "spooning." Ald. Connell has again objected strongly to this measure and by his persuasive power the ordinance was held up until a latter meeting of the council. Ald. Connell has been flooded with letters from Janesville young women.

SMOOTH FAKIRS WORK ROCKFORD

Janesville Merchants Can Be Taught a Lesson by The Clever Dodgers.

Janesville merchants will do well not to be taken in by a bunch of fakirs that have been operating in Rockford recently. The Republic tells how they worked their graft there:

Several live grafters are operating a scheme which is fleecing the merchants of this city at the expense of the local labor unions. The fakirs have a directory card and charge the merchant $2 for each enrolled in a directory which is framed and which they claim is to be hung in the Central Labor union rooms and in the other meeting places of the labor organizations. They claim to be authorized by the union and thus far have pulled the leg of many merchants, who do not desire to offend the labor unions.

The unions have just discovered the graft and are trying to run across the fakirs. The constitution of the labor organization forbids such a scheme and there will not be directories in any of the labor union rooms and therefore if some smooth fellow with a glib tongue tries to inveigle you into having your name on the labor directory, you had better call a copper and have him arrested. Chief Bargren will also be notified to keep a sharp watch for the fakirs and if they are landed the labor unions have promised to make it hot for them.

DESIRED CHANGES IN INCORPORATION

Articles Were Discussed by Gogenseltige Unterstutzungs Gesellschaft Germania Today.

Matters pertaining to desired changes in the articles of incorporation were discussed by the Gogenseltige Unterstutzungs Gesellschaft Germania at the morning session of the convention today, and a lengthy session this afternoon was devoted to a consideration of the insurance business of the order. The election of officers and the selection of the place for holding the next convention will be deferred until tomorrow morning. Tonight the Concordia Singing society will be guests of the visitors and will render a number of selections. There will be a commercial social and afterwards the delegates will regale themselves at the festival board.

The Substitute

BY WILL N. HARBEN

Author of "Abner Daniel," "The North Walk Mystery," Etc.

IN THIS PAPER

The Substitute, by Will N. Harben, the distinguished author's highest achievement and one of the best stories of American life ever written will be printed serially in this paper.

PRAISE FROM THE CRITICS

Decidedly original motive and full of quaint folk portrayed with fidelity. A very human story that makes it a picture of real American life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A wholesome, well told story. The plot is fresh, many of the events unfolded come upon the reader as surprises and throughout the story is the racy vigor that results from a deep, true knowledge of the region depicted and the mental grasp to project it.—Literary Digest.

The Substitute is a better book than Mr. Harben's greatly praised Abner Daniel.—Ella Thigginson in the Seattle Times.

A sound, wholesome tale of North Georgia life with real raciness and humor and character. It is as good as Mr. Harben's Abner Daniel and that is saying not a little.—Hamilton W. Mabie in The Outlook.

THOUGHT IT OVER AND CHANGED THEIR PLEAS

William Logan and Jerry Sutherland Acknowledged Vagrancy in Court Today.

William Logan and Jerry Sutherland who pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy in municipal court on Wednesday, after thinking the matter over for thirty-six hours in the city lock-up, decided that the best short-cut to the open air was to be secured by amending their plea. Their hearing had been set for Friday but there was no telling how many adjournments might be taken before the cases would come to trial. So they appeared in court again this morning and answered "guilty." On promise to shake the dust of Janesville from their feet with all possible haste, sentence was suspended until tomorrow and they were permitted to depart.

Came in Contact with Belt: One of the employees at the Jeffers company received slight injuries to his back this morning by coming in contact with a swift running belt. His injuries were of a serious nature, as he returned to work shortly after the accident.

SUMMER THEATRE FOR JAMESVILLE

TWO WELL-KNOWN MEN HAVE PROJECT IN HAND

WILL OPEN IN TWO WEEKS

In a Grove Lighted by Electricity—Local Orchestra and Best Vaudeville Talent Will Be Secured.

Summer vaudeville for Jamesville. This is the idea that has been keeping two well known citizens awake nights for the past two weeks. Having formulated definite plans and secured the co-operation of the Street Railway Co. they will at once proceed to rent suitable grounds and a grove at the terminal of the car-line and engage the talent.

The grounds will be illuminated with several hundred electric lights and a summer theatre that will seat three-hundred people will be constructed. Admission to the grounds will be free but a small sum will be charged for seats in the theatre. The local orchestra and the best vaudeville talent that can be procured will be engaged for entertainment every night in the week. It is also planned to secure a high diver to make the leap into an artificial lake immediately after each evening's performance.

Unless some unforeseen obstacle prevents it is probable that the new "Electric Park" as it will be called, will be opened to the public within two weeks. There will be a change of bill nightly and new talent will be imported each week. It is the plan of the management to conduct an orderly and attractive place where the most particular care will be given to the most particular care of the evening without fear of offense. To this end no intoxicating beverages will be sold on or near the grounds. Ice cream and soft drinks will be procurable at a little restaurant which will be built near the theater. The grounds will be well policed and objectionable characters will not be tolerated. It is the plan to cater entirely to people of respectability and refinement who seek some entertaining and inexpensive diversion on these warm summer evenings.

IGGORROTOS AT DOWN THE PIKE

Village of These Strange People Will Appear in Jamesville Next Tuesday.

Manager Jamesville Pike, Jamesville, Wis.: Sixteen members of the Iggorrotos will arrive in Jamesville Monday night at nine-fifty. Offer of feast of dog and expenses was sufficient inducement, and whole tribe would have gone. Good luck.

WILL U. BITE.
In charge of exhibit.
The above telegram was not received over any telegraph line in the city but just the same the Iggorrotos will be at the Pike. Sixteen "count them." They will eat dog and eat other things but they will be the genuine ones that have created so much talk. Their scanty clothing has shocked the ladies who have visited the fair and doubtless it will not be less abbreviated at the "Down the Pike." They are genuine human beings, not fakes as so many shows are exhibiting, but real live men with all their native trappings and nice fat dogs. The management of the Pike have their eyes on several choice specimens of the canine tribe and if they disappear on Monday night do not be surprised to see them tied in the camp of our strange visitors.

The manager of the battleship received a telegram this morning stating that Admiral Togo had been delayed starting on his trip, owing to the illness of his wife, but that Mrs. Togo had now recovered from her slight indisposition and would accompany her renowned husband. The admiral hinted that Mrs. Togo objected to his being honorized by the ladies by any osculation, but that he himself would not object to such a demonstration if Mrs. Togo was out of the way.

The management of the Turkish theater announces he has just received word from the sultan that Abdul Bey and Stambulo, two of the most renowned acrobats of the Imperial troupe, have been ordered to appear at the Turkish theater next Tuesday on pain of being forced to marry sixteen wives all at once if they refused. He also cabled, at his own expense, stating that his own Imperial orchestra would be on hand to furnish the music.

The highly moral show freaks are enjoying their stop in the city and the heeded lady announces she had few offers of marriage in the two days they have been in the city, all of which she has refused. The dwarf and the giant are great friends and have spent their time in fishing, but have thus far not caught anything more than a few perch. Several large packages of the Japanese tea has arrived in charge of two almond-eyed individuals who are escorting a large party of Geisha girls who will serve the tea at the Japanese garden.

"Like the Pike" has become the pass word of the hour. Just watch the announcements. One of the latest attractions is the High Art of the World in Shadow Boxes.

BAND CONCERT WAS ENJOYED BY MANY

One of The Largest Crowds of Season Gathered at Court House Park Last Evening.

One of the largest crowds of the season gathered at the courthouse park last evening to listen to the concert given by the Imperial band. Towards nine o'clock a few drops of rain fell and many departed for their homes. A goodly sized audience remained until the last, however, and the numbers rendered were thoroughly appreciated.

DOG CATCHER TO BE NAMED ON MONDAY

Quota of "Four Hundred" in Canine Society is Nearly Made Up. The Total Being 388.

dog catcher to be half. It is announced that the official dog catcher and his assistants will be appointed by Mayor Hutchinson at the meeting of the council Monday evening. Thus far the canine "four hundred" of Jamesville—strictly 388 in number—have been duly tagged and registered but there are still three or four hundred more of the animals which are not yet "in society" and whose owners have shown no inclination to further any ambitions they may have along this line.

WILL WORK FOR PARTY SUCCESS

REPUBLICAN STATE EDITORS ARE NOW ORGANIZED.

IMPORTANT MEETING HELD

Many Prominent Men Speak at the Meeting of the Editors in Milwaukee.

Fifty republican newspaper editors of the state met yesterday afternoon in the clubroom of the Hotel Pfister in Milwaukee, pursuant to a call issued by Col. John Hicks of the Oshkosh Northwestern, and perfected the organization of the Wisconsin Republican Editorial association, the purpose of which will be this fall to aid in the national and state republican campaign. A number of other editors, who were unable to attend, sent telegrams or letters stating that they were in hearty accord with the movement and would give it their full support by becoming members of the association. A constitution and by-laws were adopted, officers elected, and the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, that we, the republican editors of the state, in convention assembled, have organized the Wisconsin Republican Editorial association for the purpose of promoting the dominance of the republican party in national and state and thus assist in securing a continuance of the great benefits which have, for fifty years, resulted from making its principles effective.

"Resolved, further, that for the accomplishment of the object of this association we pledge our support to the nominees of the national and state convention, of the platforms by them adopted, and give our entire approval to their official actions."

Col. Hicks is President

The officers chosen were: President—Col. John Hicks of the Oshkosh Northwestern; Secretary—W. G. Weeks of the Delavan Republican; Treasurer—E. T. Wheelock of the Milwaukee Sentinel; Executive committee—T. R. Reid of the Appleton Post; Chas. Ingersoll of the Beloit Free Press; E. B. Haber of the Fond du Lac Common-wealth; B. J. Price of the Hudson Star and Times; H. J. Johnson of the Lancaster Herald; John G. Gregory of the Evening Wisconsin; and P. E. Noyes of the Marinette Eagle-Star.

Vice presidents were named from each congressional district as follows:

First—H. F. Bliss of the Jamesville Gazette.
Second—C. L. Hubbs of the Lake Mills Leader.
Third—E. L. Messer of the Prairie du Chien Union.
Fourth—John G. Gregory of the Evening Wisconsin.
Fifth—D. W. Schwantes of the Hurstland News.
Sixth—A. D. Bolens of the Port Washington Star.
Seventh—L. B. King of the Neillsville Times.
Eighth—W. E. Carpenter of the Waupaca Record.
Ninth—F. H. Colburn of the Shiocton News.
Tenth—J. A. Fitzgibbon of the Mattoon Herald.
Eleventh—George W. Duell of the Boyd Times-Herald.

Speakers Pledge Support

During the meeting short impromptu speeches were made by H. F. Bliss, B. J. Price, E. L. Howe, Chas. Ingersoll, A. D. Bolens, E. D. Coo, President Hicks, and Judge Emil Baensch. All of the speakers urged the united support of the republican ticket, state and national, and expressed their belief in its victory at the coming election, and the remarks were entirely in harmony with the sentiment of the convention. The sentiment was, in every case, that as long as the party supported by these editors in the state of Wisconsin was endorsed by the highest power in the republican organization, the national republican committee, there need be no doubt of its being the correct republican organization of the state or as to its success.

The speech of Judge Emil Baensch of Manitowish was one of the most interesting of the afternoon, and, though short, was to the point and full of remarks which were greeted by the applause of the listeners.

REFERENCE FOR ALL WHO DRIVE

Keep To The Right Hand Side of The Road—The State Law Orders It.

Keep on the right side, Jamesville's business streets are no wider than they were forty years ago, but during that time traffic upon them has increased many fold. Street cars, bicycles, and automobiles together with the natural increase in teaming and in pleasure driving, almost block these thoroughfares some of the time, and render them full of peril most of the time. Pedestrians are likewise exposed to danger by drivers who turn a corner on the wrong side, and, therefore, come upon them from an unexpected quarter. Drivers imperil one another in this way. "Turning short" at corners is the greatest of all evils of the road. The state law provides that all vehicles shall use the right side of the road only and violation of the law is punishable by fine. Steps are being taken to enforce this law.

Burglars Again? At half-past nine o'clock last night a call for the police came from Amos Rehberg's residence on Locust street. It was believed that burglars were attempting to break into the house. Acting Marshal Brown and Patrick Fanning hastened to the scene but upon their arrival no trace of the visitors could be found.

We All Ought to Be Like That.

We knew a little girl once with a mighty tender conscience. When she found herself doing something wrong she would run to her mother and say, "I didn't." Then her mother would say, "Loudie, what have you been doing?" and would find out all about it. —Charlotte (N. C.) News.

The Terrible Skin Torture.

Makes Life a Hell For Thousands of Miserable Human Beings.

Astonishing Good News To Such Sufferers.

The D.D.D. Remedy

Gives Instant Relief.

PERMANENTLY CURES.

Have you been—or do you know anyone who has been—in a living hell of torture with a skin disease? Despair usually seizes those so afflicted. Many imagine it is in the blood and too subtle to cure. Doctors have stood baffled and helpless against Eczema. Half of them think its worse forms are blood poison. Ninety-nine cases out of a hundred of manifestations on the skin are purely local—SKIN disease—not BLOOD disease. Healthy blooded people break out as often as any one; the blood has nothing to do with it in most cases. It is a parasite in the skin that spreads. This prescription is today completely clearing away—quickly too—and permanently curing every trace of such parasitic trouble and leaves the skin soft, healthy and perfect. Call at our store and investigate the unquestionable proofs in our possession.

The prescription is a liquid for external application—non-greasy—does not stain or discolor the wearing apparel. It comes under authentic label of the D. D. D. Company of Chicago, who solely compound the prescription for druggists everywhere.

NEW FOWLS.

Remarkable Dutch Birds—Ducks That Are Becoming Popular.

Our knowledge in life comes either from study or experience, and those who have neither seen nor heard of the Lakenvelders could not possibly know them to be a new fowl quite like the Leghorn in form, with white body plumage and black back, saddle and tail. The word Lakenvelder means in Dutch "a shadow on a sheet." Dr. A. H. Phelps describes this new breed as follows:

"As their name suggests, these birds are of Dutch origin. In Holland and Belgium, where this breed has been a favorite for more than half a century, it was formerly known as the Jerusalem or the Everlasting Layer. It passed unnoticed by English and American fanciers until about four years ago, when it was taken up by several English breeders and immediately caused a sensation, which has continued to spread and now has a firm foothold upon both sides of the Atlantic. Wherever the Lakenvelder appears a sensation is sure to follow.

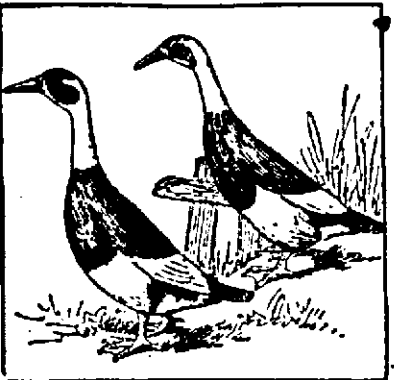

"Imagine for one moment a White Leghorn cock with a tall of mammoth proportions, having the most ample hackle feathering upon both neck and rump. Now imagine that these hackles and tail are of the most intense jet black, and you have a mental picture of the Lakenvelder. It is a living picture in black and white, startling, yet beautiful. The Lakenvelders equal the Hamburg and Leghorn as layers."

Our illustration of this variety is taken from the Feathered World of England.

While the Indian Runner is a new variety of duck so far as the exhibition room in this country is considered, it is not in fact a new breed to the world. In writing of these ducks Mr. J. Donald says they originally came from India to England something over fifty years ago. Soon after this they made their appearance in the show rooms of England and attracted considerable public attention. Some little time after this they were brought to the attention of the American fanciers, who have done much to improve them in this country.

The drakes of this variety weigh from four and a half to five pounds, the ducks about a pound less. They begin to lay when quite young. It is reported that some have been known to produce eggs when less than five months old, and, in addition to this, they are credited with having produced as many as 120 eggs in a year. The eggs of the true variety have a white shell and are not quite so large as those of other varieties.

One of their advantages is the fact that they are great foragers and will go all over the farm in search of animal food, such as bugs and worms of all kinds, of which they are very fond. Frequently they will start out as soon as it is daylight in the morning and only return home in the evening to be fed. This is a disadvantage, as they must be confined in the house every night and kept there in the morning until they have dropped their eggs.

These ducks are becoming quite popular on the farm, as they do not care so much for the water as do some other kinds and lay a large number of eggs for waterfowl. Where one male is provided for every five females the eggs are usually fertile and the ducklings very easy to grow. If well cared for, they will dress at from three and a half to four and a half pounds during the winter, and the young make splendid broilers.—Country Gentleman.

Plowing by the Gophers.

It was Darwin who credited the earthworm with making the earth fit to grow crops. Mr. Thompson Seton now notes in the Century the absence of these angleworms in some of the western states and tells that the little gopher which burrows at a depth of from three inches to two feet performs the same service. Farmers claim that, objectionable as the work of the gopher sometimes is, the land is twice as fertile after being plowed down by the gopher.

American Sparrows Are Prolific. In the United States the sparrow has six broods a year; in Britain seldom more than three.

CONSENSUS.

"What is your idea of happiness?" was asked.

Said the millionaire: I should be happy if I could spend my money where it would be of some real benefit. This, and a good digestion.

Said the poor man: Happiness is having enough money to spend without anxiety.

Said the society woman: Happiness is rest.

Said the wash woman: To be able to dance all night, and lie abed as long as I wanted to the next morning.

Said the soldier: To live peacefully all the rest of my life.

The sailor: To feel the solid earth under my feet for the rest of my days.

The artist: To paint a picture to please myself, and not the public.

The author: To have time enough to think.

The diplomat: To be myself.

The journalist: To tell the truth.

The wise man: To be a fool.

The fool: To be a wise man.—Life.
